“WOMEN CHANGING THE WORLD ONE VENTURE AT A TIME”

Come learn about, share and celebrate the empowering potential of women's entrepreneurship. The Entrepreneurship & Innovation Center at UF proudly invites all students, staff and faculty to attend the 2016 Women's Entrepreneurship Symposium.

The Symposium will take place on the morning of Friday, April 1, 2016 in the University Auditorium. It will feature speakers and panels with the keynote presentation by UF alum Kathy Fields, founder of Proactiv, and more recently of Rodan+Fields. Other participants include Kim Kaupe, co-founder of ZinePak, Leah Lytle, founder of Artsy Abode, Allison Adams, founder of the Oxford Exchange, and Ann Stokes, founder of Search. Everyone is welcome to this exciting event!
